Big Red Meat Output in Coming Months Seen by USDA

Fed Cattle Expected to Rise, Increase in Pork to Taper Off, April 1 Cattle Inventory Dip Seen

The USDA's Summary of the Livestock and Meat Situation figures red meat production in the first six months of 1977 will prove larger than last year, but the second half may see some tapering off. The Department estimated beef output would continue large, but later in the year production will run below the same period in 1976. Marketing of fed cattle in the seven major feeding states continued heavy during February and indications are that this trend continued through March. With cattle placed on feed lower during February it is anticipated that the 23-state cattle on feed inventory (to be released April 19) will probably show a small decline. Currently warmed up and shorted cattle are proving popular with feeders, and some markets this week reported that large numbers of cattle falling short of the choice grade were being taken back to the country for further feeding. The theory that the volume of finished cattle will begin to shorten in the months ahead is responsible for this development. At this time most of the major feeding areas report feedlots are current and finished cattle in strong hands and the factor that seems to prevent a sizable upturn in fed cattle prices has been the erratic behavior of the crossed beef trade which has yo-yoed up and back for many weeks. Weather will certainly be a very large factor in beef supplies, since many areas continue short of moisture and while some relief has come to most areas, if additional rainfall does (CONT. FREE ENTERPRISE, AN AMERICAN MYTH...

Sooner or later I'll be about average in this country has bragged about the wonders & virtues of what we amilingly refer to as the Free Enterprise System. We credit it with all the joys and pleasures of our affluent society and with making America the greatest place on earth. However, recent developments, some not so recent, are sure to make one wonder how we got into this mental maze and even more important, how we manage to stay there. For instance, if you think Free Enterprise is the name of the game, all you got to do is try and exercise a little of it and you'll wind up in more trouble than you can shake a stick at and if you don't watch out some fine breaking barrier may order you flung in jail for a spell. El Colina Sets 1st Santa Gertrudis Sale On April 16

Commercial and purebred cattlemen will have an unusual opportunity April 16 to buy top-quality range-raised Santa Gertrudis breeding stock at the first Herd Builder sale at El Colina Ranches at Walnut Springs, Texas. The event is the result of several years' planning and nearly a year of intense preparation by ranch personnel and Vernon and James Smith, owners of the 16,000-acre ranches located 35 miles south and west of Cleburne.

The main objective of the sale, "something for everybody," is shown in the large offering of every cattle class to meet the needs of all types and sizes operations. The wide selection of 175 lots includes 120 pairs and bred females, 30 service-age bulls, 15 fifteen-to-eighteen month old bulls, 6 eighteen-month-old high quality open heifers, and a special offering of 12 top-quality twelve-month-old bull and heifer calves.

Vernon Smith pointed out that the Apache and other leading bloodlines of the ranch had achieved national and international recognition. In shows, sales and breeding programs, Apache's Dividend, bred and raised on the ranch was named National Grand Champion Santa Gertrudis Bull of the United States and also in Brazil.

James Smith noted the ranch is widely known for its progressive breeding techniques and conservation practices. It participates in a number of demonstration projects and is used as a teaching facility by the Texas Christian University Ranch Management Program.

The sale will begin at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, April 16, with Walter Brittan, Bryan, serving as auctioneer.

Jean and Rosie Davis, owners of Davis Breeding Service of Granbury, Texas, are shown with two of the Pinzgauer half-blood steers they are readying for shows later this year. Shooting for the carcass and of the shows is the Davis' objective, and they recently had reserve champion carcass at a major show.

Pinzgauers Winning Carcass Cattle For Davis Breeding Service, Granbury

Granbury — Jean and Rosie Davis, owners of Davis Custom Breeders near here, believe they have found in Pinzgauers the right cattle for their breeding objectives — the ideal carcass.

"If you can't produce a carcass that pleases the packer and meat that pleases the housewife, you might as well get out of the cattle business," Davis said.

Using Pinzgauer sires by artificial insemination on cows of other breeds and crosses is Davis' method of producing that kind of carcass.

One of the steers Davis produced was recently judged reserve grand champion of a major livestock show. It was Pinzgauer-Charolais and was shown in the Charolais division of that show because the steer's dam was Charolais.

The steer, when slaughtered and graded, graded prime average, had .2 inch of fat cover on the 16.2-square-inch ribeye, yield graded 1.4.

"Producing one animal with that kind of carcass doesn't prove that all animals of the same breeding will have that kind of carcass, but we believe we've had enough similar ones from crossing Pinzgauers with other breeds and crosses that they will consistently produce the ideal kind of carcass."

To further prove his point to himself, Davis has other Pinzgauer steers being resided in his feedlot for slaughter under the official supervision of Max Stabile, meats professor at Tarleton State University at Stephenville.

Davis finished the reserve champion steer just as he does all of his steers — on the least expensive feedlot ration he could buy. The straight milo ration with supplements cost $5.10 cwt.

Davis believes that Pinzgauers are the easiest calves of all the new "Exotics" and he has quit bringing his cows bred to Pinzgauer bulls in out of the pasture at calving time. We haven't had single calving problem with the Pinzgauer sired calves," he said.

Davis has also found the Pinzgauer cross calves to be highly fertile. He's had two heifer calves "accidentally" bred by a neighbor's bull before they were weaned off their mammae.

Davis said a Pinzgauer show has been approved for the 1978 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show at Fort Worth, and persons interested in entering animals in it should begin making plans for that now.

expired with the meeting. Demarest automatically becomes ex officio member of the association's board of directors for one year.

The election of officers and directors for 1977 was one of several highlights of the best attended membership meeting ever conducted by the association. Among those highlights were a near-100% increase in the breed's advertising budget, and establishment of a $10,000 special award program for exhibitors of qualifying purebred Charolais steers in designated shows. By defeating a proposed constitutional amendment that would have prohibited the association from selling advertising directly or indirectly, the membership gave approval of the board's earlier action in establishing an association-owned magazine, The Charolais Journal.

Other officers elected were Frank Weason, Victoria, Ark., first vice president; Richard Hass, Terrell, Tex., second vice president; Ray Pepon, Indianapolis, Ind., secretary, and Arnold Wienk, Lake Preston, S.D., treasurer. Hass previously was secretary, and Weason and Wienk were members of the board of directors.

Directors chosen for two-year terms were Billy Bullock, Atlanta, Ga.; Lloyd DeBruycker, Dutton, Mont.; John Blankens, Holland, Minn.; Earl Kindig, Waynesboro, Va.; Dick Martin, Crawfordville, Ore.; Charles "Chuck" Drinn, Morehead, Ky.; Marvin Nichols, Ankeny, Iowa; and Gerald Schoenfelder, Scottsdale, Ariz.

George Frisbie, Gypsum, Kans., who completed a two-year term on the board of directors, was chosen to fill the remaining one year of Wienk's term as a director following the stockpiles of commodities without providing farmers the income target protection of the present program.

"As our state's largest industry, Agriculture concerns each of us, from the farm to the table. Farm policy must reflect the reality that farmers face, in terms of higher fuel costs, higher machinery costs, and higher costs for just about everything that goes into a crop. The Administration's farm bill does not, in my view, address these problems adequately, and I believe the bill will be given careful scrutiny by the Congress."

the nation's farm policy, a policy that was last established in 1973, before the Arab oil embargo, before the inflation affecting farm machinery prices, and before the rapid escalation in farm exports to other nations.

"Last week, the President's farm policy suggestions were revealed to Congress, and I am concerned that the proposal is inadequate to meet the needs of Texas farmers. It ignores a much-needed revision of the disaster program, and tampers with the market-oriented farm system established by Congress in 1978. I am very much concerned that the President's plan would lead to larger government

TEXAS RED ANGUS NEWS

L. B. Golemon's Entire Family Involved With Red Angus Cattle

Jacksonville — For the L. B. Golemon Jr. family Red Angus cattle are a family affair. He's president of Texas Red Angus Assn., his wife, Nancy Golemon, is secretary-treasurer of the association, and their daughter, Pauli, 20, is Texas Red Angus queen.

Another daughter, Diane, 13, is getting into 4-H work and breeding Red Angus, and son, Gordon, 22, is actively participating in operation of the Golemon's Red Hill Ranch where they breed Red Angus here.

Just as Golemon is working hard at leadership of the Texas Red Angus Assn., he is also working hard at trying to make his small Red Angus herd one of the leaders of the breed.

To do that, he recently purchased one of the top hard sire prospects of the Red Angus breed, CV Larkaleng 502, a two-year-old son of RC Larkaleng J121X, one of the top Red Angus sires in this country. Golemon's new sire had an adjusted weaning weight of 693 pounds, weighed 1,143 at a year of age, and now weighs close to a ton.

THE BIG RED

The Big Red Ones...
"Commercially Speaking"

As a commercial seed stock producer you are looking for net results in a crossbreeding program. The net results that mean the most are summed up with one word, profit.

Red Angus are "big" in performance, in fact, that's what they're all about and registered Red Angus bulls are sold with a certificate which states exactly how they have performed from birth to weaning.

What's more, Red Angus bulls are naturally polled to addition to being red in color. If there was ever a color in the world that related to performance, it is red.

If you are looking for profitable performance, then you're looking for The Big Red One...

CV Larkaleng 502, s son of RC Larkaleng J121X, one of the top Red Angus sires in the nation, is L. B. Golemon's present herd sire.

These are the only three Red Angus bulls L. B. Golemon Jr. has left unsold from his last crop of yearling bulls. Two of them are sons of the 1971 double performance champion of the Houston Livestock Show.

These twin Red Angus bull calves are sons of L. B. Golemon Jr.'s present herd sire CV Larkaleng 502.

breeders not to do what I bought this bull," Golemon said. "I immediately put the youngster (13 months old) with my cows and started breeding him, because my other herd sire came up lame and couldn't work," he added. Golemon paid $4,000 for CV Larkaleng 502, purchasing him from Sam Baker, Bristol, Va.

The young sire did a commendable job running with the herd of about 25 cows. He dropped 16 calves in a 30 day period, and 20 calves between Jan. 4 and March 8 this year. Two of the calves are twin bulls. Four other cows are to calve to him in the next few days, Golemon said.

Many of the younger females in the Red Hill herd bear the influence of his former sire Orbis Okie PV, who had a weaning weight of 719 pounds and yearling weight of 1,190. That bull was raised by Darrell Butler of Pauls Valley, Okla., another leading Red Angus breeder.

Golemon believes his Red Angus are doing a good job, because they consistently wean calves weighing 65-80 percent of their dam's weight. "When they do that they are doing good," Golemon says.

A representative of B. F. Goodrich Co., Golemon travels Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, and Louisiana for that firm and does most of his work with the Red Angus on weekends and holidays, but the other members of the family work with them every day.

Golemon's primary bull market is to commercial cattlemen in his area. He now has only three yearling bulls left for sale, but two of them are sons of Orbis Okie PV, and are highly promising sire prospects. Orbis Okie was a double performance champion of the 1971 Houston Livestock Show and at $1,650, was the high selling bull in the Red Angus sale at that show.

In addition to being President of Texas Red Angus Assn., Golemon is also president of the Cherokee County Livestock Show, and is making an effort to get Red Angus shows established at county livestock shows all across Texas.

The Cherokee County show held last month had 126 entries and the grand champion sold for $3,103, making the show project highly worthwhile for the exhibitor.

Red Angus Registrations Up 57% In Year, Now Total 107,000 Head

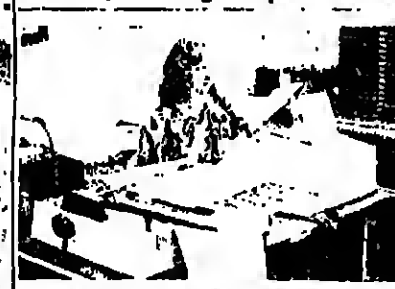

Denton, Texas — In the past year registrations of Red Angus cattle have increased 57 percent, and transfers by 56 percent to a present total of 107,000 animals on the books of the American Red Angus Assn.

Mike Sweet, Executive Director, said the association also expects 1977 to be a banner year for the fast growing breed.

"We believe the big increase in registrations and recorded transfers is mainly due to increasing numbers of the cattle, but is also partly due to a big increase in the number of breeders who are willing to spend the time and money necessary to register their cattle," Sweet said.

"It's also partly due to the new computerization of our records, which is nearing our goal of a two-week turn-around time from the time we receive the registration information until it is mailed back to the owner," he said.

The association is also instituting a new concept in its registration papers. Space will be provided on the registration certificates for complete performance on each animal to be recorded, including the performance

Yackley Limousin Sets Bull Sale For April 26

Onida, S. D. — The Fourth Annual Yackley Ranch Limousin Bull Sale will be held April 26, 1977. Sale time is 1:00 p.m. at the Yackley Limousin Ranch located 5 miles Northeast of Onida, S. D.

Selling are 100 Yackley Limousin bulls including 8-7/8 blood coming 2 year olds; 7-8/4 blood coming 2 year olds; 40-7/8 blood yearlings and 50-3/4 blood yearling bulls.

Also selling are 5-1976 open 7/8 blood heifers, 16-open 3/4 blood heifers and 8 horses.

For catalogs and information contact Yackley Limousin, Bob and Elaine Yackley & Sons, Onida, S. D. 57564, 605/268-2168. Sales phone is 605/268-2756. Auctioneer will be C. K. "Sonny" Booth, Welch, Okla.

commanding a premium of $2.00 to $4.00 cwt., because both feeders and packers know the Red Baldies can match, or exceed, the performance of the highly popular Black Baldies," he said.

Cost of the certificates will be nominal — just enough to cover printing and handling, Sweet said. As soon as the certificates can be printed they will be available to owners of Red Angus bulls by contacting the American Red Angus office, Box 776, Denton, Texas 76201, phone 817/387-3502.

"We believe these certificates will be of great benefit, especially to Hereford breeders who use Red Angus bulls to get Red Baldy calves. Unfortunately there are other breeds of bulls which will also get similar looking calves that cannot match the performance of the Red Angus sired calves," Sweet said.

"We believe that the new certificates will put an end to discrimination against Red Baldy calves in the market place, since the breeder will pass the certificates along to the new owner, and the new owner can pass it on with the cattle until they reach slaughter," he said.

"We are going to urge persons who use the certificates to present them to their auctioneers when they sell calves through auctions so that the auctioneer can positively identify them when they come in the ring. We believe such positive identification will result in Red Baldy calves

Red Angus Field Day Set May 28 At Inez, Texas

Jacksonville, Texas — L. B. Golemon Jr., owner of Red Hill Ranch here and president of Texas Red Angus Assn., has announced that a Red Angus Field Day will be held May 28 at the Owen Kolla Ranch at Inez, Texas, near Victoria in South Texas.

The field day will include speakers, a business meeting of the association members and directors, and a tour of the Kolla Red Angus herd, Golemon said.

Another major effort of the field day will be organization of a junior association for Texas. Recently the American Red Angus Junior Association was formed, and Golemon believes there's sufficient interest to form a Texas Red Angus Junior Assn.

Brahman Breed Improvement Seminar Is Scheduled For May 27-28 At A&M

The Texas Brahman Association has scheduled a dynamic program for all cattlemen to be held at Texas A&M University on May 27 and 28. This TBA Breed Improvement Seminar is designed to answer many of the questions today's cowman has on structural types by looking at both live cattle and carcasses.

Blending together live cattle evaluations in the Animal Science Pavilion and speeches in the Rudder Conference Center, the seminar has selected a far reaching program on one of the major topics of interest in the business today — "What type of cow should we breed for?" Experts in both the animal science world and cattle industry as well as top notch cattlemen will be on hand to compare their programs and discuss their merits.

The seminar begins at 9:00 a.m. on May 27 at the Animal Science Pavilion on the A&M University campus. The majority of the morning will be spent evaluating Brahman cross steers that represent the three basic structural types of cattle.

Leon Locke of J. D. Hudgins Inc., Hungerford, Texas, will be the Master of Ceremonies for both days. Friday morning's speakers and topics include: Dr. L. D. Wythe, TAMU — "Evaluation of Brahman Cross Steers"; Dr. Tony Sorenson, TAMU — "Visual Appraisal of Cow Profitability"; and Dr. Jim Sanders, TAMU — "Animal Breeding Systems."

The program for that afternoon will have Leon Miller, a feedlot operator from Eagle Pass, speaking on "The Feeding of Brahman Cross Steers," and then a series of speakers giving their viewpoints on "Selecting and Breeding Brahman Cattle." These will include: Dean Blackwell, BBB Ranch,

American Brohmental Assn. Sole-Workshop Set On April 30

San Antonio — Dr. J. O. Brumlow, president of the American Brohmental Association (ABA), has announced the newly formed organization's first workshop and all-regional Brahmental sale will be held Saturday, April 30, at the Lone Star Auction in San Antonio, Texas.

The ABA was the first association in the world to establish a registry for Brahmentals, having been incorporated by the State of Texas on May 22, 1975. The ABA has the name "Brahmental" registered with U. S. Patents and Trademarks Office and with the State of Texas, and the U. S. Trademark is now pending.

The workshop beginning at 10:30 a.m., April 30, will be to familiarize Brahmental breeders with the inspection and classification system used by the ABA. It will be followed by inspection of the sale cattle.

Dr. John H. Farris, vice-president of the ABA, will conduct the workshop. It will include a detailed explanation of the Standard of Excellence, the inspection and classification, and the acceptance breeding-up chart. A question and answer session will follow.

The sale will offer approximately 80 head of the finest selection of Brahmental cattle available for purchase anywhere. Dr. Brumlow said.

There will be 20 foundation bulls of pure Brahman and Simmental heritage. These bulls include one of the very scarce three-quarter Brahman, one-quarter Simmental needed for three-quarter Simmental and purebred Simmental females to produce three-eighths Brahman, five-eighths Simmental calves. Bulls of this type are very hard to obtain now, and such bulls of the quality being offered in this sale cannot be found elsewhere, Dr. Brumlow said.

Females to be offered include fourth top selling bull which sold at $735 to Klatis Kelley, Walsh, Co. The fifth high selling bull was consigned by Harland Herefords and went at $700 to Tom Elke, Woodward, Ok.

Ninety-eight (98) females grossed $25,230, with the top selling female a yearling-half consigned by Messner Herefords, Laverne, Ok. going at $600 to Burke Zollner, Laverne, Ok. Second high selling female also consigned by Harland Herefords, went at $455 to Bonnie Miller, Hooker, Ok. The third high selling female was consigned by Gene-Lal House, Herefords, Laverne, Ok. and sold at $440 to Leddy, Ok. and sold at $440 to Eugene Carlson, Sweetwater, Ok.

Free refreshments will be served throughout the day and lunch will be available.

Sims, 406/397-7745; or James Hildred, Polled Hereford Farm, Carl Kelsey, owner, RR 1, Chetopa, Kansas 67330, phone 618/788-1211.

Three excellent cows with pure three-eighths Brahman, five-eighths Simmental bull calves at side. These calves are among the very first three-eighths, five-eighths cross bulls ever born. There will also be five purebred Simmental heifers bred to produce three-eighths, five-eighths calves, along with more than 30 head of females bred to produce three-eighths Brahman, four-eighths Simmental and one-eighth English calves. All of these calves will qualify as purebred Brahmentals in the American Simmental Association, which has less stringent requirements than the ABA.

Dr. Brumlow invites all Brahman breeders, and all persons interested in getting in on the ground floor of the most promising breed on the world livestock scene to attend this workshop and sale.

Further information is available from the headquarters of the association: American Brohmental Association, P. O. Box 556, Floresville, Texas 78114, phone 512/698-2781.

Stuph & Thangs

numerable lows, and there really ain't much of any thing you can do which ain't liable to git you in some kind of violation.

The sad part of th' whole she-bang is that right this minnit Congress & the President & th' Courts are layin' th' groundwork fer more rules & regulations with which to hem you in and th' schemes range from what you eat, drink, breathe, or jist about any thing you do.

Th' Govmint has made a few feeble moves recently toward deregulation of some industries, and since th' bigger th' industry the more Govmint regulation they live with, it would appear that our loudest tewkers about Hallalighit Ely, no these Free Enterprise Touts are acsaint't to High Heaven that they don't want to be De-Regulated. It seems th' Govmint Regulation has become some kind of Security Blanket, and th' Businessmen sure don't want to have to fly by th' seat of their pants and be confronted by real, live Competition.

This psycho-man's ain't limited to businessmen and big business or even small business. Th' overdrive industry ain't don't seem to want to let their own lives without some Govmint Agency holdin' their hands and stuffin' a pacifier in their mouth every time thangs don't go to suit 'em or they are confronted with th' problem of undr' their own brain or energy to git somethin' done. Actually, they prefer that their Govmint keepers deliver it to 'em as a matter of convenience.

It is this Reggulated Seseality that spawns so many of th' change folks a-belly akin' about. Fer instance, th' Wholesale Price Index jumped 1.12 in March. This represents double digit inflation on an annual basis and while th' Govmint folks seem inclined to covinced us that this was a one-time fluke, they really don't know and it seems th' need for that $50 tax rebate throwaway and th' other biases stimulants Congress & th' White House have in th' works may be completely unnecessary and it seems at long last that even some of th' people in th' Govmint are startin' to realize that Govmint Extravagance might perhaps be at th' root of inflation, since with Free Enterprise no longer at work and built in raises in prices due to fetter and fetter labor contracts, as well as built in Govmint programs that cost more each year, there is no chance that Competition in th' market places will bring about anything except higher & higher prices.

It might be a worthwhile experience if we tried a little Old Fashioned Free enterprise through less Govmint Regulation of prices and it might be interestin' if they started on freight rates and airline tariffs, jist to see what would happen if they let a little Competition in.

Ever thine,

The Edittar.

P.S.: Uncle Dunk notes some fellar th' other day informed th' people who claim th' Death Sentence is no crime deterrent, should pay attention. I sure deters crime in th' case of that particular murderer, Dunk figgers if Congressman Aspin does emsow stop the pillage around military posts, he'll be th' first one that was able to stop th' military from helpin' their selfe to Govmint Propriety. This is so well established th' people involved figger it is some kind of fringe benefit. Dunk figgers if President Carter keeps twistin' th' Russian Bear's tail, we are in for some interestin' new twists in our Furio Affaire and one of 'em may be World War III staged in Africa.

Red Meat Output

not come the liquidation cycle and increased slaughter of cattle off grass could develop. USDA points out that should large numbers of those cattle end up in the feedlot situation could become jammed again. The sharp increase in pork production has been a dominant influence in the red meat situation, and heavy supplies of pork are generally credited with causing the ups and downs in the dressed beef trade as consumers switch from beef to pork when beef prices edge upward.

The Summary says the cyclical expansion in hog production is continuing, however, despite the big 12% increase in farrowings this winter the die-off of pigs due to harsh weather and other causes held the pig grower to 7% gain. Should the March-May farrowings follow growers intentions, set at a 9% rise, be born out the later increase in pork supplies would be of moderate proportions. Estimates of the hog kill in the second quarter of 1977 range as high as 20% above the same period last year. USDA estimates second quarter hog prices in the second half of the year.

USDA figures higher fed cattle prices are due late this Spring contingent on pasture conditions which prevent heavy movement off pasture and on feed. Private sources figure fed cattle prices in the mid $40's are possible in the near future. USDA thinks the number of heavy yearling cattle will be above a year ago in the April 1 inventory. During the past few days interest in contracting yearlings for Summer delivery has perked up, with a 1,000 head string contracted in the past few days in Colorado. Cnfr contracts have been making little if any news over the country and with the off-again, on-again, fed cattle and beef markets, this situation is not expected to change greatly before the beef trade settles on course.
